AFTERMATH

Ladislas Farago. Avon Press. N.Y. 1974 (Hearst Corporation)

Page 211. "In this order of things, Monsignor Montini headed section II of the Secretariat, in charge of the day to day conduct of the Holy See's international affairs. More important in this context, Montini had under his supervision the Vatican bureau that issued the refugee travel documents and the Caritas Internationalis, the Church's international welfare organization, which at the time, and for some years after the war, was one of the main charitable institutions aiding the fugitive Nazis!"

"1949, Caritas aided Dr. Hans Hefelmann, one accused at Euthanasia Trial, with travel documents and money to Argentina."

Page 241. "Around 1947, the department of the Vatican's Secretariat of State helped displaced persons under the direction of Monsignor José Montini, whose assistant, Monsignor Guisepppe Siri," was the link for the escape of Martin Bormann to Argentina.

THE FINAL CONCLAVE

Malachi Martin

Pocket Books, NY. 1978 (Gulf and Western Corp.)

Page 20. "Montini never really welcomed by the Romans." He was exiled by Pope Pius XII from the Vatican, but returned triumphant and became Pope Paul VI by June 21, 1963. Montini brought with him a whole train of architects, financiers, clerics of various callings, publishers, designers, art people, known as the "Milan Mafia".

Question

Was this the marriage of Hitler's Chief of Eastern Intelligence, Reinhard Gehlen's agents, with our CIA, to take over the Vatican power, wealth, and combine into Nazi and USA, British, hands.. along with Prince Bernhard of the Netherlands.. for their combined efforts of another World War against Marxism, the USSR?

Page 28. "No more secluded and secure and private time and place has been found by any previous Popes for ultra secret meetings."

MONTINI, SINDONA MEETING.

The 1969 combine of Montini, now Pope Paul VI and financier Michele Sindona from Sicily. Sindona had worked with U.S. Army.

"Paul finds and obliges a good part of Vatican finance and Papal monies. He authorizes Sindona to sell Italian investments" and "invest" in United States and world markets.
