TREASON FOR MY DAILY BREAD

Mikhail Lebedev
Vallancey Press
PO Box 158, Guernsey, British Isles, 1977

THE MUFTI AND THE FUEHRER

Joseph Schechtman
A.S. Barnes and Co, Inc.
N.Y. 1965

Allegations of Mikhail Lebedev in his manuscript, completed March 15, 1966.

There was a high level Nazi involvement in killing Pres. Kennedy.

Martin Bormann, Hitler's top director, escaped to Paraguay after World War II.

Borman had the assistance of the Italian Church, the Grand Mufti, with lots of money, proper identification, to start his organization.

Lebedev and Bormann were isolated in an Italian monastery, disguised as monks until Nov. 1945.

Haj Amin Mohammed Effendi al-Husseini, Mufti of Jerusalem and President of the Supreme Moslem Council, a Nazi himself, had strong alliances with Hitler, arranged the transfer to Paraguay.

Arrangements for sailing out of Italy were with the Jewish Haganah group. Lebedev, Bormann, and Sayeed were passed off as "three leaders" of Jewish intelligence. "Nobody on the boat saw any of them." Sayeed worked for the Mufti.

Lebedev's life was a constant contact with Nazis or Russians, forced to spy for whichever side he was on, or to be killed.

Bormann sent Lebedev to New Orleans to seek out the "anti-Communists" in the Southwest, his fellow Nazi Borman Brotherhood.

David Ferrie, Clay Shaw, Guy Bannister, Col. Orlov, J. Edgar Hoover, and "Ruth" are the few named. (Ruth Paine)

Contact was made with Zed, trained assassin, in Shreveport, La.

They were instructed with tape cassettes and a model of Dealey Plaza. No written words, nothing on the phone. Tapes destroyed.

Payment was $20,000 and $30,000. Lebedev escaped after Nov. 24, 1963. Oswald was killed. He knew he would be killed, silenced.

Zed shot Kennedy's head off with a forty-five. He never fires a rifle. They were picked up by Dallas police, then released.

The story of his life/^{was} given to a London publisher, in Beirut, and put into this book.
