DEFENSE TEAM FOR DAN WHITE KNIGHT, HE WAS TOO GOOD FOR S.F., FRUSTRATED.

Dan White shot and killed Mayor George Moscone and Supervisor H. Milk.

"White had trouble with his working class background and his belief that a man's word is his bond, as against the realities of San Francisco politics."

"White's rigid values conflicted with everyday life, his strict Catholic upbringing and his experiences as a soldier in Vietnam and as a policeman, as against the real world."

"Dan White had a strong sense of social responsibility."

"After his election to the Board of Supervisors, White found the City Hall rife with corruption, and he felt the other board members didnt give a damn about their constituents, only themselves."

"White was disillusioned with the manner in which politicians conducted themselves and frustrated, couldnt cope with the ups and downs of politics."

"White is a man of strong ideals."

"White was flabbergasted when asked why he didnt merely hit Mayor George Moscone or Supervisor Harvey Milk instead of shooting them (killing them), because that was contrary to his code of Behavior. It seemed so ridiculous to him, so unfair, because he could have defeated them so easily in a fistfight."

Get that for logic.

This wasnt exactly a dual.

"White was unsuited for politics, political life. He regarded some of the aspects of the governmental process as shoddy or perhaps immoral!"

(White has morality of Hitler. Shoot!!)

"White's background left no space for compromises common in the political area."

"He was disillusioned by the lobbying at City Hall, and the vote trading."

"Vote trading was contrary to White's beliefs, for a person to say he was going to do something and then do something else."

"White lived by the Golden Rule." (The gold that bought the Porsche)

"It is inconceivable for White to plan something heinous, he couldnt even tell off someone who stepped on his toe in line."

(What did he do in Vietnam, para-trooper, S.F. Police?)

"White always came to the defense of the weaker children (white) in school, with quite a few fistfights."

(Always the White Knight, crusade to save S.F.?)
